11                         5.      TRIAL PREPARATION DEADLINES.

12                             (a) Motions in Limine. The only appropriate purpose for a motion in limine is to 13 obtain, in advance of trial, an evidentiary ruling on the admissibility of a specific piece of 14 evidence. Unless otherwise allowed by the Court, all motions in limine shall be filed no 15 later than 21 calendar days before the scheduled trial date, and written opposition to such

22 exhibits, shall be lodged with the Court no later than 7 calendar days before the scheduled
23 trial date. Exhibits must be placed in three-ring binders of no more than three inches each 24 and must be pre-marked in accordance with the attached forms.

26                             (c) Objections to Evidence. Counsel shall meet and confer with respect to any 27 evidentiary objections in advance of the pretrial conference. They shall advise the Court at 28 the pretrial conference if any objections contained in their joint pretrial conference

1 statement have been subsequently resolved.
2

3           (d) Jury Instructions. If a jury trial has been demanded, the parties shall meet and
4 confer to discuss proposed jury instructions. The Court uses its own set of standard 5 instructions regarding the role of jurors, organization of the jury, communication with the 6 Court, etc., and the parties need not discuss such instructions during their meeting and 7 conferring. No later than 10 calendar days before the pretrial conference, the parties shall 8 file (a) proposed jury instructions upon which all parties have agreed and (b) jury
9 instructions upon which any other party does not agree. The proposed jury instructions 10 must be accompanied by a declaration stating that the parties have met and conferred in 11 good faith in an attempt to agree upon as many jury instructions as possible. The 12 chambers copies of all proposed jury instructions shall be accompanied by an electronic 13 copy of the instructions in Word or Word Perfect format.

14           For each disputed instruction, the offering party shall indicate the corresponding 15 instruction(s), if any, being proposed by other parties. The parties shall file written 16 objections to all disputed instructions no later than 7 calendar days before the scheduled
17 trial date.

18           All proposed jury instructions shall be concise and free from argument; cover only 19 one subject to be indicated in the caption; show the identity of the offering party; be 20 typewritten out in full on a separate page or pages; be consecutively numbered; and set
21 forth specific citations to supporting authority. Case citations must include pinpoint 22 citations to the exact page or pages that support the proposed instruction.

23
24           (e) Voir Dire. If a jury trial has been demanded, the parties may, at their option,
25 submit proposed questions for voir dire. Any such questions must be filed no later than 10
26 calendar days before the pretrial conference.

27
28           (f) Special Verdict Forms. If a jury trial has been demanded, the parties shall

1 meet and confer to discuss any desired special verdict forms. The parties shall follow the 2 procedure outlined in paragraph 6(d) in filing their proposed verdict forms.

3

4 6. TRANSCRIPTS. Arrangements must be made with the Courtroom Deputy at least 5 14 calendar days before the scheduled trial date if the parties desire daily transcripts and/or 6 realtime reporting.

7

8 7. SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE. The parties SHALL arrange for a mandatory
9 settlement conference before Magistrate Judge Nandor J. Vadas of this Court. This 10 conference shall be scheduled to take place no later than 5 calendar days before the pretrial
11 conference.

13 8. PROCEDURE FOR AMENDING THIS ORDER. No provision of this order
14 may be changed except by written order of this Court. The Court may enter such an order
15 upon its own motion or upon motion of one or more of the parties. The parties must make 16 any such motion in accordance with the Civil Local Rules and with a demonstration of 17 very good cause. The mere fact that the parties have stipulated to a change does not 18 constitute good cause, nor does a conflict with a court date set after the date of this order.
